

NAVAGRAHA TEMPLE GUIDE

Cauvery Delta Circuit - Tamil Nadu & Thirunallar, Karaikal

Temples, Rituals, Addresses, Timings & Phone Numbers

Official-data-first practical pilgrimage reference

HR&CE / temple-office / Puducherry government / TNSTC sources

Includes one-day TNSTC circuit and ritual-focused two-day planning notes

DATA STANDARD

Official sources are used wherever a current temple-government record is available. Where official web records are incomplete (notably Suryanar Kovil and Kanjanur), the guide labels cross-checked secondary information and advises calling ahead. Ritual notes describe traditional devotional practice, not guaranteed outcomes.

How to use this guide

This document is built for an actual Navagraha pilgrimage rather than a generic temple summary. It separates official operational data (government/temple-office contacts and timings) from traditional ritual practice. If a published timing is inconsistent or incomplete, that is stated explicitly.

Best practice: call the temple office 24-48 hours before a time-sensitive abhishekam or festival visit. On Guru Peyarchi, Sani Peyarchi, weekends and local festival days, normal opening windows and queue systems may change.

Quick reference - all nine temples

The quick table intentionally compresses timing text. Use the full temple profile before planning a precise arrival.

Ritual framework and temple etiquette

There is no single universally enforced Navagraha ritual sequence across all nine temples. Local Agamic practice and temple-office instructions take priority. The following framework reflects common South Indian temple practice and the research notes supplied for this guide.

Recommended general sequence

- Purification and entry: bathe, wear clean modest clothing, and avoid carrying unnecessary ritual materials bought from unsolicited sellers.
- Ganesha first: begin with Vinayagar/Ganesha where present.
- Presiding deities before the graha: in the Shiva temples, worship the Moolavar Shiva and Ambal before approaching the planetary shrine.
- State the sankalpa: if doing archana/parihara, give the correct name, rasi and nakshatra only if the priest/counter asks for them.
- Graha worship: use the temple-approved archana, abhishekam, homam, lamp or offering process. Do not assume a private agent is authorised.
- Pradakshina and prostration: local practice varies. A common custom is to remain standing within the Navagraha enclosure and perform full namaskaram near the designated flag-post/open space rather than directly inside the enclosure.
- Finish calmly: receive prasadam, avoid rushing across sanctums, and follow temple staff directions during crowded pooja windows.

Traditional graha materials at a glance

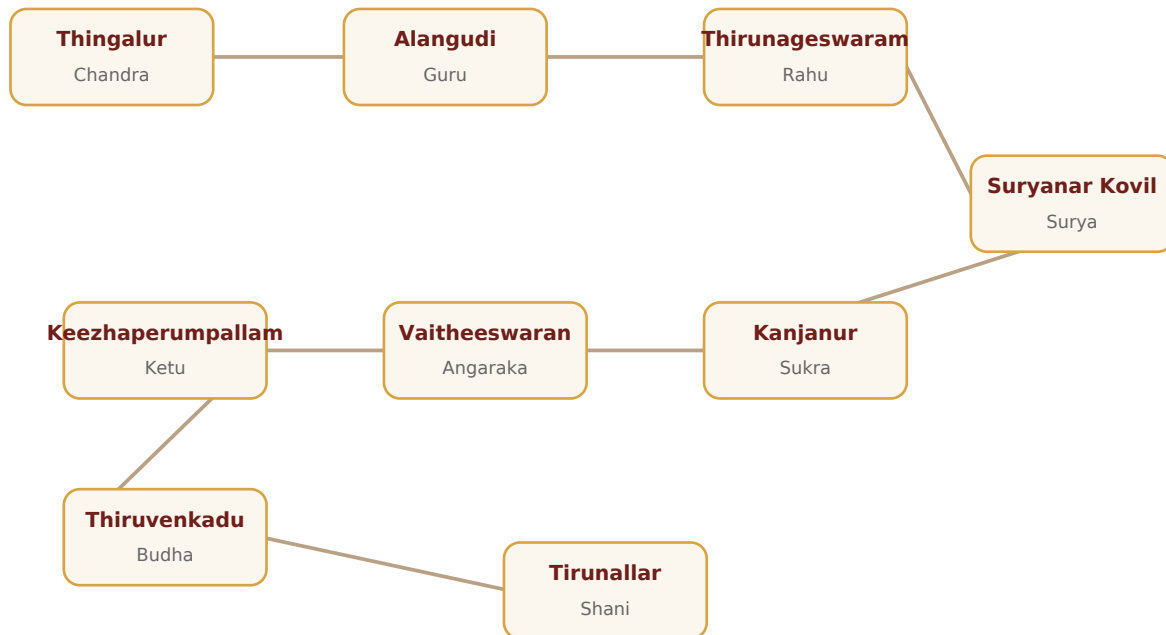

Graha	Traditional grain	Cloth / colour	Common devotional focus
Surya	Wheat	Red	Vitality, authority, clarity
Chandra	Rice / paddy	White	Mind, emotional steadiness, family
Angaraka	Toor dal	Red	Courage, conflict, land / debt
Budha	Green gram	Green	Learning, speech, analysis, business
Guru	Chickpeas	Yellow	Wisdom, children, marriage, growth
Sukra	Mochai / beans	White	Relationships, arts, prosperity
Shani	Black sesame	Dark blue / black	Discipline, delay, karmic burdens
Rahu	Black gram	Dark blue / black	Uncertainty, fear, unusual obstacles
Ketu	Horse gram	Multi-coloured	Detachment, insight, spiritual focus

These are traditional associations, not mandatory purchases. Temple-approved offerings and priest instructions take precedence.

Official TNSTC Navagraha package from Kumbakonam

TNSTC currently lists a Kumbakonam Navagraha Package covering all nine core temples in one day. This is the most useful official reference for the practical transport sequence.

TNSTC official one-day route from Kumbakonam

Order shown is the transport package sequence, not an astrological ranking.

Deluxe bus	5:00 AM departure from Kumbakonam, all days, fare Rs. 740.
AC bus	5:15 AM departure from Kumbakonam, Thursday-Sunday, fare Rs. 1,274.
Official route	Thingalur -> Alangudi -> Thirunageswaram -> Suryanar Kovil -> Kanjanur -> Vaitheeswarankoil -> Keezhaperumpallam -> Thiruvankadu -> Tirunallar.

Important: a one-day bus circuit is primarily a darshan plan. A commercial pilgrimage source that follows the same geographic order explicitly warns that special poojas are difficult to fit into a one-day circuit. For multiple abhishekams, Rahu Kalam worship, senior-citizen pacing or a Nala Theertham bath, use a two-day plan.

Suggested two-day ritual-focused split

- Day 1: Thingalur -> Alangudi -> Thirunageswaram. Add Uppiliappan / Kumbakonam temples only if energy and time permit.
- Day 2: Suryanar Kovil -> Kanjanur -> Vaitheeswarankoil -> Thiruvankadu -> Keezhaperumpallam -> Tirunallar.
- If Rahu abhishekam or Saturday Thirunallar worship is essential, anchor the day around that fixed window and allow the remaining temples to float.

1. Surya (Sun) - Thirumangalagudi / near Aduthurai

Suryanar Kovil - Sri Suryanarayana Temple

Primary deities	Surya with Usha and Pratyusha (Chhaya); separate shrines for the other grahas.
Address	Suryanar Temple, Thanjavur District, P.O. Thirumangalagudi, Tamil Nadu 612102.
Phone	+91 94438 73233 (current public listing; call to confirm).
Visiting hours	Current public listing: Mon-Sat about 7:00 AM-12:30 PM and 4:00 PM-8:30 PM; Sunday about 6:00 AM-8:30 PM continuously. Other temple guides publish a 6:00 AM morning opening, so confirm before travel.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Begin with Kol Vinayagar / Ganesha before the main Surya darshan.
- Traditional Surya offerings include wheat, red cloth and red flowers. Use only materials accepted by the temple counter/priest.
- Many pilgrims perform Surya archana or abhishekam and then visit the other graha shrines within the complex.
- For a formal parihara, ask the local priest whether the nearby Thirumangalakudi Prananatheswarar visit should be included in your sequence.

Planning note

This is the only core Navagraha stop where Surya is the principal temple deity rather than a planetary shrine within a Shiva temple.

Data source: Cross-checked public listing and temple guides; official HR&CE; web record was not sufficiently complete in the current public index.

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

2. Chandra (Moon) - Thingalur

Arulmigu Kailasanathaswamy Temple

Primary deities	Kailasanathaswamy (Shiva), Periyamayaki; Chandra shrine.
Address	Arulmigu Kailasanathaswamy Temple, Thingalur, Thanjavur District, Tamil Nadu 613204.
Phone	04362-261499 (Tamil Nadu HR&CE;).
Visiting hours	Sat, Sun and Mon: 6:00 AM-1:00 PM and 4:00 PM-9:00 PM. HR&CE; Tamil text indicates other days: 7:00 AM-1:00 PM and 4:00 PM-9:00 PM. The portal contains an AM/PM formatting error in one field; this guide follows the explanatory temple text.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Worship Ganesha, Kailasanathaswamy and Periyamayaki before Chandra.
- Common Chandra parihara materials are raw rice/paddy, white cloth and white flowers.
- HR&CE; lists milk abhishekam, poorna abhishekam, ghee deepam, sahasranamam and paddy offering among temple services.
- If doing an archana, give the devotee name, rasi and nakshatra as requested by the temple priest/counter.

Planning note

A good early-morning first stop for the official one-day TNSTC route.

Data source: Tamil Nadu HR&CE; temple record TM014150 (contact, timings and services).

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

3. Angaraka / Chevvai (Mars) - Vaitheeswarankoil

Arulmigu Vaithiyanathaswamy Temple

Phone	04364-279423 (Tamil Nadu HR&CE;).
Visiting hours	Commonly published schedule: 6:00 AM-1:00 PM and 4:00 PM-9:00 PM. The HR&CE; contact record confirms the temple and phone but its timing field is incompletely rendered in the current index, so call before a time-sensitive pooja.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Worship Vaidyanathar and Thaiyalnayaki before the Angaraka shrine.
- Traditional Mars offerings include toor dal, red cloth and red flowers.
- The temple is traditionally associated with Siddhamirtham Theertham and healing-oriented worship. Temple prasadam traditions include sacred ash and medicinal-style offerings.
- Do not buy high-value "special remedies" from unsolicited intermediaries. Use official counters or ask the temple office for the correct procedure.

Planning note

This temple is one of the busiest stops; allow buffer time if you want a specific abhishekam rather than basic darshan.

Data source: Tamil Nadu HR&CE; record TM018030 for address/contact; current temple-timing guides cross-checked for visiting hours.

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

4. Budha (Mercury) - Thiruvenkadu

Arulmigu Suvedaranyeswaraswamy Temple

Primary deities	Swetharanyeswarar, Brahmavidyambigai; Budha; Aghoramurthy.
Address	East Sannathi Street, Thiruvenkadu, Mayiladuthurai District, Tamil Nadu 609114.
Phone	04364-256424 (Tamil Nadu HR&CE;).
Visiting hours	6:00 AM-12:30 PM and 4:00 PM-8:30 PM (Tamil Nadu HR&CE;).

Ritual and parihara practice

- Complete Shiva and Ambal darshan before Budha worship.
- Traditional Budha offerings include green gram, green cloth and suitable flowers.
- HR&CE; currently lists Budhan abhishegam, Budhan milk abhishegam and Budhan homam among available temple services.
- The temple also has a major Aghoramurthy tradition; if your purpose is specifically Budha parihara, tell the official counter so you are directed correctly.

Planning note

Official daily pooja schedule includes early morning, kalasandhi, uchikala, evening and night services.

Data source: Tamil Nadu HR&CE; temple record TM018027 (address, phone, timings, poojas and services).

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

5. Guru (Jupiter) - Alangudi

Arulmigu Abathsagayeswaraswamy Temple

Primary deities	Abathsagayeswarar / Apatsahayesvarar (Shiva), Umayammai; Guru as Dakshinamurthy tradition.
Address	Guru Parihara Sthalam, Sannathi Street, Alangudi, Thiruvarur District, Tamil Nadu 612801.
Phone	04374-269407 (Tamil Nadu HR&CE;).
Visiting hours	6:00 AM-1:00 PM and 4:00 PM-9:00 PM. HR&CE; states Thursday worship is available from 6:00 AM to 9:00 PM; festival schedules can change.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Begin with the presiding Shiva and Ambal; Guru worship is strongly associated with Dakshinamurthy here.
- Traditional Guru offerings include chickpeas, yellow cloth and yellow/light flowers.
- Thursday is the most popular day and can be significantly more crowded.
- For Guru peyarchi or major parihara, confirm the special darshan/pooja arrangement directly with the temple office.

Planning note

The temple is south of Kumbakonam and is geographically separate from the eastern cluster, which is why it appears early in the TNSTC route.

Data source: Tamil Nadu HR&CE; temple record TM014252 and Tiruvarur District government tourism page.

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

6. Sukra (Venus) - Kanjanur

Sri Agneeswarar Temple

Primary deities	Agneeswarar (Shiva) and Karpagambigai. Shiva is worshipped as Sukra; there is no separate principal Sukra idol in the usual sense.
Address	Sri Agneeswarar Temple, Aduthurai-Kuthalam Road, Kanjanur, Thiruvudaimarudur Taluk, Thanjavur District, Tamil Nadu 609804.
Phone	0435-2473737 (consistent across current temple directories; call to confirm).
Visiting hours	Commonly published schedule: 6:00 AM-12:00 noon and 4:00 PM-9:00 PM. Some current listings show a later morning opening, so call before arrival if your schedule is tight.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Worship Agneeswarar and Karpagambigai; this itself is the Sukra worship here.
- Traditional Sukra offerings include white cloth, white flowers/lotus and mochai (field beans).
- Friday is the customary high-demand day for Sukra-related prayer.
- Because there is no separate main Sukra shrine, do not skip the Shiva sanctum expecting a standalone planetary shrine.

Planning note

The temple is very close to Suryanar Kovil, making the pair efficient to visit together.

Data source: Current cross-checked temple directories; administration is associated with HR&CE; and Madurai Adheenam, but the current official web record does not expose a complete public contact/timing page.

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

7. Shani (Saturn) - Thirunallar, Karaikal

Sri Dharbaranyeswaraswamy Devasthanam

Primary deities	Dharbaranyeswarar (Shiva), Pranambigai; Saneeswara Bhagavan.
Address	Sri Dharbaranyeswaraswamy Devasthanam, Sri Saneeswara Bhagavan Temple, Thirunallar P.O. 609607, Karaikal, Puducherry U.T.
Phone	Office: 04368-236530. Executive Officer / government contact: 04368-236504.
Visiting hours	Government temple directory publishes about 6:00 AM-12:30 PM and 4:00 PM-8:30 PM. The official temple pooja schedule runs from Usha Kalam (6:00-7:00 AM) through Artha Jamam (8:30-9:00 PM). On Saturdays, Shani transit periods and festival days, use the official website/office for the exact access plan.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Traditional pilgrimage practice places Nala Theertham bathing before temple worship. Follow current safety and temple instructions at the tank.
- After entering, worship Dharbaranyeswarar and Ambal before Saneeswara Bhagavan.
- Sesame oil lamps, tila (sesame) offerings, archana and abhishekam are common Shani practices; use the Devasthanam counter.
- Older customs sometimes mention discarding old clothes after a sacred bath. Do not leave garments or materials unless the temple administration explicitly permits it.

Planning note

The official site provides online e-pooja / darshan services and publishes special arrangements for Sani Peyarchi.

Data source: Official Thirunallar Devasthanam website, Karaikal District Government and Puducherry HRI records.

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

8. Rahu (North Node) - Thirunageswaram

Arulmigu Naganatha Swamy Temple

Primary deities	Naganatha Swamy (Shiva), Piraiyanai Amman; Rahu Bhagavan.

Ritual and parihara practice

- Worship Naganatha Swamy and Amman before Rahu Bhagavan.
- The signature temple ritual is Rahu milk abhishekam, especially during Rahu Kalam. Book/pay only through the official system/counter.
- Traditional offerings include black gram, dark blue/black cloth and appropriate flowers.
- Arrive well before Rahu Kalam on busy days because the abhishekam queue and viewing area can fill quickly.

Planning note

The official HR&CE; schedule specifically confirms the temple remains open during Rahu Kalam.

Data source: Tamil Nadu HR&CE; temple record TM017999 (contact, timings, poojas and service fees).

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

The HR&CE; record also publishes Rahu Kalam and Yamagandam reference windows for daily worship planning.

Data source: Tamil Nadu HR&CE; temple record TM018032 (address, phone, timings and services).

Before leaving for this temple: confirm the opening window if your arrival is within 45 minutes of the afternoon closure; carry water; keep footwear/phone arrangements simple; and use the official temple counter for paid poojas.

One-day vs two-day decision guide

Need	One-day circuit	Two-day circuit
Basic darshan at all nine	Good fit	Very comfortable
Rahu Kalam milk abhishekam	Possible but difficult	Recommended
Multiple special pariharams	Not recommended	Recommended
Senior citizens / reduced walking pace	Can be tiring	Much better
Nala Theertham + unhurried Thirunallar	Risk of time pressure	Recommended
Extra temples (Uppiliappan, Swamimalai, etc.)	Usually skip	Can add selectively

What to carry

- A small cloth bag, water, required medicines, and socks/footwear that are easy to remove repeatedly.
- Names, rasi and nakshatra written clearly if you intend to request multiple archanas.
- Minimal pre-purchased pooja items. It is usually safer to buy only what the official counter/priest confirms is needed.
- Cash in small denominations plus UPI, because payment modes can vary by counter and connectivity.

What not to assume

- Do not assume every temple follows the same number of pradakshinas or the same material offering.
- Do not assume a one-day route can accommodate every special pooja.
- Do not treat astrological/parihara practices as medical, financial or legal guarantees.
- Do not leave cloth, oil packets, sesame bundles or other ritual waste unless the temple explicitly provides a designated method.

Source register and verification notes

Sources were checked in September 2026. Operational data can change, so the temple office remains the final authority on the day of travel.

Research note used in preparing this guide

The user-supplied research profile was used for the overall Navagraha matrix, common ritual framework, traditional graha materials and geographic circuit concepts. Its ritual statements were treated as traditional practice and cross-checked against current official operational data before inclusion.

Secondary cross-check: navagrahatemplestour.in was used for the practical one-day/two-day pilgrimage sequence and the observation that a one-day circuit is too tight for extensive special poojas. TNSTC remains the authority for its own package route, departure times and fares.

Final caution

Festival days, graha peyarchi days, Saturdays at Thirunallar, Thursdays at Alangudi, Rahu Kalam at Thirunageswaram and local kumbabhishekam/maintenance work can change access, queues and pooja timings. Phone the relevant temple before a ritual-dependent trip.
